

Pepperdine Scholarship Policies for New Students
Effective Spring 2023

A new student for GSEP Pepperdine Scholarships is defined as a student in his/her first term at Pepperdine University's Graduate School of Education and Psychology (GSEP). Information about GSEP's available scholarships, amounts, requirements, and application deadlines are posted on <https://gsep.pepperdine.edu/admission/financial-aid/scholarships/>. NOTE: Transfers from a 100% online (Psychology@Pepperdine) program to an on-ground Psychology program and students who complete a GSEP Doctor of Education program and are now applying to the GSEP Doctor of Philosophy in Global Leadership and Change are considered new students for scholarship purposes.

Enrollment Requirements, Withdrawals, Deferrals, SAP

- Students must be enrolled full-time (6 units or more) in order to receive the scholarship. If the student does not enroll at full-time status (fewer than 6 units), he or she forfeits eligibility for the term. Students drop below 6 units will have their scholarship(s) decreased according to GSEP's tuition refund schedule. The scholarship is not put on hold for an additional term. Exceptions apply to the WAVES Got Your Six Scholarship.
- Leave of absences or withdrawals before the add/drop deadline of the term will result in the cancellation of the scholarship for the term otherwise, the scholarship(s) will be decreased according to GSEP's tuition refund schedule.
- Students who request to defer will be allowed to defer their Education for Life and Merit scholarships only once to the next available term for their program. Students who defer an additional time will have their Education for Life or Merit scholarship revoked, but would be eligible to apply for any available scholarships for their new, deferred term of admission.
- Students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as described in the academic catalog. A cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or above is required and students cannot exceed the maximum time frame in which a student is required to complete a program.

Awarding Policies

- Scholarships awarded are divided equally between the student's first three consecutive terms.
- Pepperdine scholarships cannot be combined with the Colleagues Grant, GSEP Diversity Scholarship, Federal and Institutional Military Scholarships/Benefits, or Athletic Scholarships. Students receiving military benefits, or other forms of third-party scholarship(s) will require further approvals.
- The GSEP Diversity Scholarship cannot be combined with the Colleagues Grant.
- Education for Life Scholarship cannot be combined with the Merit Scholarship.
- Scholarships are not renewable in future years with the exception of the Evelyn B. Blake Scholarship.
- Scholarships are tuition-specific with the exception of the The WAVES Got Your Six Scholarship and Curtice & Evelyn Booth Veterans Endowed Scholarship.
- Please note, any adjustments to awarded amounts will be at the University's discretion.

Ph.D Global Leadership and Change, Doctor of Education, MFT Malibu Day-time, 100% Online Psychology Policies
