

Pepperdine Scholarship Policies for Continuing Students

A continuing student for GSEP Pepperdine Scholarships is defined as a student presently enrolled at Pepperdine University's Graduate School of Education and Psychology in their second term or beyond in the same academic program. Information about GSEP's available scholarships, requirements, and application deadlines are posted on GSEP's scholarship webpage: <https://gsep.pepperdine.edu/admission/financial-aid/scholarships/>. NOTE: Transfers from a GSEP Doctor of Education program to the GSEP Doctor of Philosophy in Global Leadership and Change program, and transfers from a 100% online (Psychology@Pepperdine) program to the on-ground Psychology programs are considered new students for Pepperdine scholarship purposes.

- Students must be enrolled full-time (6 units or more). Failure to do so will result in the cancellation of the scholarship for the current term.
- Students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as described in the academic catalog. A cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or above is required and students cannot exceed the maximum time frame in which a student is required to complete a program.
- Students who withdraw or take a leave of absence will have their scholarships revoked for the term in which they cease enrollment.
- Scholarships awarded are generally divided equally between the student's terms of enrollment for the applicable academic year (For example, if a $1,500 scholarship is awarded at the beginning of the academic year, the per term amount is $500 each for fall, spring, and summer).
- Pepperdine scholarships cannot be combined with Federal and Institutional Military Scholarships/Benefits, or Athletic Scholarships. Students receiving military benefits, or other forms of third-party scholarship(s) will require further approvals.
- Students in the following programs are ineligible for Pepperdine Scholarships available to GSEP students:
 - Master of Science (M.S.) programs in the education division
 - 100% online (Psychology@Pepperdine)
- Scholarships are tuition-specific and are not renewable in future years. Exception: The Evelyn B. Blake Scholarship is eligible for renewal.
- Please note, any adjustments to awarded amounts will be at the University's discretion.
