Our records show you have not met the minimum satisfactory academic progress requirements to receive financial aid. You must submit a Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) appeal and be approved in order to regain eligibility to receive financial aid.

Federal regulations require that your Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress appeal contain the following elements:

- (1) the reason(s) why you have not maintained satisfactory academic progress, and
- (2) what you intend to do to meet the satisfactory academic progress requirements by the end of your next term of enrollment.

It is important that you explain your circumstances in detail. If your SAP problem developed over the course of several semesters, you must explain the circumstances for each term. Generalized statements covering multiple semesters will not be sufficient for our consideration of your appeal.

Please submit your completed form along with all supporting documentation to the GSEP Financial Aid Office.

SECTION 1: REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

Please attach the following REQUIRED documentation.

A current Student Education Plan dated within the last 60 days: All Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeals must include a current Student Educational Plan. Supporting Documents: It is very important to attach supporting documents; e.g., a doctor's note, an accident report, death certificate, etc. that support the circumstances in your appeal.
