ALIENTO HANDBOOK

Aliento Center News

Aliento Community Organization (ACO) is a volunteer ran organization specifically for Aliento students and community. ACO provides additional support and services to foster academic, personal, and professional development for the Aliento community. The goals of ACO include enabling the commitment and dedication to the humanization and liberation of Latinx and all oppressed communities. ACO aims to create a brave space and community where its members can voice their needs, challenges, and barriers and implement services and support to address them. ACO provides a variety of events, such as platicas and seminars.

If you're interested in becoming involved or providing feedback to how we can best support students, please email organizationalientocommunity@gmail.com
