

"La Llorona; A Mujerista Psychology Approach to Reclaiming Cultural Archetypes As Medicine

PRESENTER: DRA. ADRIANA L. MEDRANO

January 25, 2025

The story of La Llorona has long been rooted in colonization, religious oppression, and white supremacy. This narrative has served to primarily control and oppress BIWOC (Black, Indigenous, and Womxn of Color). In this workshop, participants will be able to define and identify the meaning of Cultural Archetypes from a Mujerista Psychology Perspective. Participants will also be able to identify and understand La Llorona Archetype and how these characteristics can be utilized to support client's spiritual healing and emotional well-being.
