

Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology: Emphasis in Marriage and Family Therapy with Latinx Communities

Reach
NEW Heights

with the Pepperdine Graduate School of Education and Psychology

PROGRAM ESSENTIALS

- ▶ Top Program in the US
Consistently listed as a top choice for graduate clinical Psychology Programs by the National Center for Education Statistics.
- ▶ Degree Awarded in Approximately Three Years
Students will complete the 60 to 72 units for the MA in Clinical Psychology with an emphasis in marriage and family therapy with Latinx communities program and finish with their degree in approximately three years.
- ▶ Meets LMFT and LPCC Requirements
Upon graduation, students will have met all educational requirements to sit for California's LMFT or LPCC licensure exams.
- ▶ Supervised Clinical Experience
Students work directly with local Latinx communities.
- ▶ Reputable Program
This program and Pepperdine as an institution are among the highest ranked in the US.
- ▶ Values-Centered Approach
Students are empowered to make a lasting impact through advocacy work, building community relationships, social purpose, and meaningful service.
- ▶ No GRE Required
We offer an equitable admission process that considers your ability and commitment to success rather than scores on standardized tests.

PEPPERDINE
School of Education and Psychology

STUDENT PROFILE

Students want to pursue doctoral degrees or work in community mental health and advocacy, hospital settings, or government entities and want to become licensed psychotherapists or counselors working with Latinx communities.

FORMAT/LENGTH

A traditional classroom format allows graduate students to complete our three-year, 60- to 72-unit program through face-to-face instruction at Pepperdine's three graduate campuses.

PROGRAM LOCATIONS

- Irvine
- West Los Angeles
- Calabasas

All Aliento-specific courses are held at the Irvine Campus*

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Application and application fee
- Official transcripts from a regionally accredited institution
- Two letters of recommendation
- A two- to five-page statement of purpose
- Additional requirements (if applicable):
 - If non-native English speaker:- TOEFL/IELTS required
 - If a degree(s) awarded from institution(s) outside of the US: A detailed foreign transcript evaluation report by a NACES member organization will contain the following:
 - Foreign transcripts translated into English
 - Grade point average calculated on a 4.0 scale
 - A determination of US degree equivalency (regional accreditation equivalency is required)

SE2408727

ACCREDITATION AND RECOGNITIONS

Pepperdine University is accredited by the WASC Senior College and University Commission, 985 Atlantic Avenue, #100, Alameda, CA 94501, 510.748.9001.

Call or Visit us Online to Learn More: GSEP.PEPPERDINE.EDU/CLPL | 310.568.5600