
PEPPERDINE Career Week

Graduate School of Education and Psychology

Psychology Career Day

Tuesday, February 4th, 2014 - West Los Angeles Campus

Register online: www.pepperdine.edu/careerweek

Waves Creating a Way: Mentor Panel

A panel discussion with alumni John Enoch, Elan Javanfard, Brittany Irwin-Baldonado, and 2nd year MFT student, Jasmeet Bhullar, on how to best build your career during your academic program rather than after graduation. Tips will be shared on how to strategically navigate through the GSEP Psychology Master's program. Appetizers and refreshments served.

11:30am- 12:45pm, Room 203

The Psych Way: Private Practice

Learn about developing one's own private practice from a business perspective. Speakers include Bill Benson, LMFT/LPCC, Bobbi Jankovich, LMFT, and Dr. Daniel E. Bruzzone, Psy.D/GSEP Adjunct Faculty.

1:00pm-1:45pm, Room 203

Careers in Business

Learn how to apply your psychology background in the business sector, including marketing and human resources. Speakers include alumni John Enoch, MAP, who is currently working in advertising at RPA (Rubin Postaer and Associates), Jamie Harris, a Career Counselor for Work & Life Matters – A Service of Cedars-Sinai.

1:00pm – 1:45 pm, Room 202

Careers in Public Mental Health and Social Service

Learn about careers in the public mental health system, including required qualifications and the application process. Speakers include alumni Barbara Paradise, LMFT, Program Director at Providence Community Services and Marcelo Cavalheiro, MA, Regional Administrator at Telecare Los Angeles Services.

2:00pm- 2:45pm, Room 203

The Faculty Way: Psychology Research & Higher Ed Teaching

Learn about careers in research and how to pursue these opportunities. Learn how to pursue an adjunct faculty position, including where to look for opportunities and how to build your marketability. Especially helpful for those making a career transition into higher education. Speakers include Dr. Joseph Turner, Psy.D/ GSEP Adjunct Faculty, and Dr. Daniel E. Bruzzone, Psy.D/ GSEP Adjunct Faculty. Dessert and refreshments served.

3:00pm-4:00pm, Room 203

SoCal Social: Pepperdine Networking Event

Wednesday, February 5th, 6:00pm-9:00pm, Luxe Sunset Boulevard Hotel, West LA

Join alumni and students for a multi-faceted evening of learning and networking! The Indian Alumni Group will host an informative panel to walk attendees through the complex roadmap of securing your financial future. This panel of experts will navigate the ins and outs of creating a strategic and comprehensive plan to set yourself up for success. In addition, there will be a session on pursuing a career in financial advising, resume reviews and an extended networking reception to meet new contacts.

The Cultural Way: Being Culturally Aware In the Interview & On the Job

Thursday, February 6th, 3:00pm-4:00pm, West LA Campus, Room 342

Learn techniques for answering questions pertaining to diversity and strategies for practicing cultural sensitivity in the work place from a Human Resource Director of the Trevor Project, Elizabeth Unrath, JD/MBA, Assistant Professor of Clinical Psychology and the Director of the Language and Culture Lab at Pepperdine University, Dr. Carrie Castaneda-Sound, and Ganna Priadko, GSEP student of Social Entrepreneurship and Change. Refreshments served.
