
PEPPERDINE Career Week

Graduate School of Education and Psychology

Education Career Day

Thursday, February 6th, 2014 – Webinars & West LA Campus

Register online at: www.pepperdine.edu/careerweek

To join the webinars from your computer or mobile device, please use the links provided.

Leading the Way in Learning Technologies

Hear from Jill Florant, a MA in Learning Technology alumna and the Senior Engagement Manager and Customer Advocate for Edmodo. Gain advice on how to build career success in this growing field from a prominent leader in learning technologies.

11:00am-12:00pm, Webinar, <http://fuze.me/22651887>

The Social Enterprise Way: Job Search Strategies

Hear from Anna Shelton, a MA in Social Entrepreneurship & Change alumna, on where to find employment opportunities and how to make an impact through your work.

12:30pm-1:30pm, Webinar, <http://fuze.me/22651903>

Paving Your Way to Becoming an Adjunct Professor

Learn how to pursue an adjunct faculty position, from Pepperdine alumna of the Organizational Leadership program, Brandi Stankovic, EdD, including where to look for opportunities and how to build your marketability. Especially helpful for those making a career transition into higher education.

2:00pm-3:00pm, Webinar, <http://fuze.me/22651927>

The Cultural Way: Being Culturally Aware In the Interview & On the Job

Learn techniques for answering questions pertaining to diversity and strategies for practicing cultural sensitivity in the work place from a Human Resource Director of the Trevor Project, Elizabeth Unrath, JD/MBA. Refreshments served.

3:00pm-4:00pm, Room 342

The Teacher Way: Principals' Scoop on Finding a Job

Hear from principals at traditional public, charter, and private schools such as Sarah Nitsos, Principal of Juan de Anza Elementary School and Lilliam Paetzold, Principal of Notre Dame Academy. Gain the inside scoop on what they are looking for in a teacher candidate. Excellent networking opportunity! Light meal served.

5:00pm-6:30pm, Room 342

SoCal Social: Pepperdine Networking Event

Wednesday, February 5th, 6:00pm-9:00pm, Luxe Sunset Boulevard Hotel, West LA

Join alumni and students for a multi-faceted evening of learning and networking! The Indian Alumni Group will host an informative panel to walk attendees through the complex roadmap of securing your financial future. This panel of experts will navigate the ins and outs of creating a strategic and comprehensive plan to set yourself up for success. In addition, there will be a session on pursuing a career in financial advising, resume reviews and an extended networking reception to meet new contacts.
