

PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY

Graduate School of Education and Psychology

Clinical Connections & MAPS Student Group

The Nuts and Bolts of Applying to and Succeeding in Psychology Doctoral Programs

Thursday, March 27, 3:00 - 4:00 p.m., Room 332

Interested in Pepperdine's Psy.D. program or other psychology doctoral programs? Come to this forum to hear from three current students about their experiences! Bring your questions and learn about topics such as:

- The workload of a doctoral program: How does it differ from the MA level?
- Time management
- Clinical training experiences
- What goes into a dissertation?
- Hints for standing out in the application process
- Options for research opportunities
- Career options as a psychologist
- Advantages/disadvantages of being in a doctoral program.
- Why did we pick Pepperdine over other options?

Andrew Walker is a second year student in Pepperdine's Psy.D. program.

Alberto Ibarra is a second year student in Pepperdine's Psy.D. program.

For questions or to RSVP, contact:
Katy Byrom at katy.byrom@pepperdine.edu

~