Sherry Helgoe, LMFT

Sherry Helgoe, LMFT specializes in treatment for women and teenagers. She combines therapy and coaching for her clients with expertise which includes overachievement, difficult relationships, marital problems, depression, work stress and emotional overeating. She also treats teenage girls with issues relating to low self esteem, communication difficulties and eating disorders. She has over 10 years of expertise as a therapist and believes that therapy is a collaborative process.

If you are unlicensed, you may be able to get hours towards licensure with your clinical supervisor's approval! This is a FREE event!
