WEAVING WIT INTO WISDOM: THE INTEGRATION OF HUMOR INTO COGNITIVE BEHAVIORAL THERAPY

We have all heard that “laughter is the best medicine.” Is there evidence to support this widely held claim? Learn facts and fiction about the health benefits of humor. Explore the research on the physiological benefits of laughter and learn how therapeutic humor changes cognitions and emotions resulting in improved health. Come see this integrative model that outlines the healing power of humor and learn strategies to increase your “humor quotient.” You will be able to explore the breadth, depth and function of humor in our society. Watch how humor in psychotherapy can be used for diagnosis and treatment. Get prepared to laugh!

Friday, December 5th, 2008
7:00-9:00 PM, 3rd Floor, Room TBA
Networking Begins at 8:30 PM
Pepperdine University - Irvine Graduate Campus
