

*Illuminating Relevant Clinical Issues
& Networking with Colleagues*

NEW INTEGRATIVE THERAPY FOR TREATING DEPRESSION & INTERPERSONAL CONFLICTS

This forum will explain and demonstrate a new integrative therapy that treats both depression and problematic interpersonal conflicts. It successfully integrates aspects of behavioral, cognitive, interpersonal, psychodynamic, and narrative therapies, and utilizes profound practical insights associated with the philosophies of Plato and William James.

You will learn a new and effective method to:

- Resolve conflicts
- Assess the attainability of projected outcomes
- Assess the value of one's interpretation of a situation
- Know what to say and do in order to obtain the desired outcome

Friday, October 3rd, 2008
7:00-9:00 PM, 3rd Floor, Room TBA
Networking Begins at 8:30 PM
Pepperdine University - Irvine Graduate Campus
18111 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 332, Irvine, CA. 92612

Paul B. Whittemore, Ph.D., ABPP is Board Certified in Clinical Psychology and has earned two Ph.D.s, one in Philosophical Theology and one in Clinical Psychology. Prior to becoming a psychologist, he was a professor of philosophy and religious studies. Since his career change, he has been on the clinical faculty at USC Medical School, has taught in Family Medicine Residency Programs and in continuing education programs for physicians. Currently he is doing interdisciplinary research, is an Adjunct faculty member at Pepperdine, and is in private practice in Newport Beach specializing in treatments for depression and relationship problems.

If you are unlicensed, you may be able to get hours towards licensure with your clinical supervisor's approval! This is a FREE event!

Please RSVP to Kathleen Wenger at psyprofdev@pepperdine.edu.

This event is sponsored by the IGC Clinical Training & Professional Development office.