When It All Comes Together:
Taking each experience to reach a lifelong goal

As we navigate our way in this field, we often wonder about the future implications of our work experiences. We may stumble or feel compelled to make choices, and wonder if these will lead us to achieve a lifelong goal. In this workshop, you will explore the value of your experiences and how multiple careers, each building on the other, can bring skills that may lead to a position you may not have imagined.

Thursday, October 1st, 2009
2:00 pm-4:00 pm, 3rd Floor, Room 340
Networking Begins at 3:30 pm
Pepperdine University - West Los Angeles Graduate Campus
6100 Center Drive Los Angeles, CA 90045

Gail Wilburn, LMFT

Gail Wilburn, LMFT, is currently Executive Director at the Southern California Counseling Center in Los Angeles. While raising two children, Gail had several career incarnations, including Director of the Community Service Sentencing Project of Rochester, New York, First Lady's Correspondence Office at the White House and Office Director at Empower America in Washington, D.C. After moving to Malibu eleven years ago and marrying Pepperdine's Dean of the School of Public Policy, Jim Wilburn, Gail pursued her dream and graduated from Pepperdine's GSEP with her Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology in 2005. Licensed in October 2008, Gail became Executive Director at the Southern California Counseling Center where she trained for four years.

If you are unlicensed, you may be able to get hours towards licensure with your clinical supervisor's approval! This is a FREE event!

Please RSVP to Sheila Sayani at Sheila.Sayani@pepperdine.edu or call (310) 568-5776. This event is sponsored by Pepperdine's Clinical Training & Professional Development Office.
