How to Find a Job as a MFT Intern

Allison Zednicek, LMFT, shares her insight and experiences as a graduate and licensed professional on effective ways to find internships. Allison will discuss the options that lie in many community, county, and state intern and paid positions in need of master's level employees with a clinical education. In this workshop, Allison will present the essentials needed to succeed as an intern to expedite the internship process so that hours accumulate, clinical skills increase, and one's career as a licensed therapist can begin.
