

PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY

Graduate School of Education and Psychology

Private Practice Visit Psychology Students (MFT and MAP)

Elisa Dombrowski, LMFT

Do you want to know what it's really like to be in Private Practice? Learn valuable tips on what you can do now to prepare for your future career. Students who have attended these visits have stated that this is one of the most helpful experiences in their Pepperdine training!

Please Join Us as Elisa Dombrowski, LMFT welcomes students & alumni to visit her Private Practice

Corona del Mar, CA

DATE: Friday, March 13th

TIME: 12:30-2:00pm

Elisa Dombrowski is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with over 12 years of experience. In her private practice, she specializes in pre-marital counseling, relationship issues, and divorce recovery. She has also incorporated into her practice her Italian Greyhound Bella, a Registered Therapy Dog, to provide Animal-Assisted Therapy.

Elisa graduated from Pepperdine University with an MA in Clinical Psychology in 1996. After graduating, she founded the Corona Del Mar Counseling Center and became a certified Clinical Supervisor. Since 2003, Elisa has been an adjunct faculty member in the Pepperdine University Graduate School of Education and Psychology, teaching classes such as Psychology 662: Clinical Practicum. As a diplomat of the American Psychotherapy Association, her professional background includes working in non-profit executive administrations, community mental health clinics, school counseling programs, inpatient hospitals, public speaking programs, private practice, and academic institutions.

Space is limited. Immediate RSVP is suggested.
Please RSVP Kathleen Wenger at psyprofdev@pepperdine.edu