Jon B. Pease is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and an alum of Pepperdine. For over five years, Jon has been working with children, parents and teachers sharing his anti-bullying message. He counsels both targets and aggressors who are involved in the bullying cycle, where it most often happens: at school. The manager and founder of a non-profit school based counseling organization, Jon provides program direction, recruiting, training, crisis management and counseling. He specializes in bullying, adolescent and adult motivation and hosts semi-annual motivation forums. He works with families, teens and individuals as a Marriage and Family Therapist in his offices in Calabasas and Santa Monica.

Space is limited. Immediate RSVP is suggested.
