

Join us!

Pepperdine University
Graduate School of Education and Psychology
Diversity Council Presents

Autism Defined:

Unpacking the Complexities of One of the Fastest Growing Developmental Disorders

Robert deMayo, Ph.D., Moderator
Associate Dean of Psychology
Pepperdine University

Belinda Daugherty, Ph.D., Panelist
Assistant Professor in the department of Speech-Language Pathology
California State University, Long Beach

Adel Najdowski, Ph.D., BCBA-D, Panelist
Associate Professor and Director of the M.S. in Behavioral Psychology Program
Pepperdine University

In honor of Autism Awareness Month, the GSEP Diversity Council presents experts on the subject of Autism. Please join us in learning more about one of the fastest-growing developmental disorders in the US and help join the movement in creating acceptance, awareness and action. The moderator of the panel will be our very own Dr. Robert deMayo, Associate Dean of Psychology.

Light refreshments will be provided.

Tuesday, April 10, 2018 | 4PM - 5:30 PM
West Los Angeles Campus, Room 333/334
6100 Center Drive | Los Angeles, CA 90045

